

UNION BAPTIST CHURCH OF CINCINNATI PRESENTS
A SPECIAL MEMORIAL DAY SERVICE AT TWO HISTORIC CEMETERIES
MONDAY, MAY, 30, 2022
12:00 NOON

The Public is Invited to Attend Either of These Two Services

UNITED AMERICAN CEMETERY

Duck Creek Road
Cincinnati, Ohio, 45227

United American Cemetery was founded in 1883 and includes many graves moved from an earlier cemetery in Avondale (with an earliest legible tombstone from 1832). It is the resting place of Underground Railroad figures as well as writers, politicians, business people, artists, Civil Rights leaders, and many military veterans, including at least 55 African American veterans of the Civil War. United American Cemetery is listed in March 2022 in the National Register of Historic Places in the United States.

The Memorial Day Service at United American Cemetery will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Orlando B. Yates, Senior Pastor of Union Baptist Church, and other special invited guests will be participating in this service.

UNION BAPTIST CEMETERY

4933 Cleves Warsaw Pike
Cincinnati, OH 45238

Union Baptist Cemetery is a registered historic district in Cincinnati, Ohio, listed in the National Register of Historic Places in September 2002. The cemetery is the oldest Baptist African-American cemetery in Cincinnati, founded in 1864 by members of Union Baptist Church. Prominent African Americans, including Reverend Nickens (first minister hired at Union in 1835), Honorable George W. Hays, Jr., and Jennie D. Porter (founder and principal of the Harriet Beecher Stowe School) are buried in the cemetery. Many former slaves, anti-slavery advocates, and active members of the Underground Railroad are interred here.

The Memorial Day Service at Union Baptist Cemetery will be conducted by Rev. Alvin Wyatt, Associate Minister of Union Baptist Church, and other special invited guests will be participating in this service.